

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS
TENTH CIRCUIT

October 28, 2022

Christopher M. Wolpert
Clerk of Court

---

In re: Updated Reopening Protocol
Byron White United States Courthouse

No. 95-01

---

GENERAL ORDER
FILED October 28, 2022

---

Before HOLMES, Chief Judge.

---

This order governs access to the Byron White United States Courthouse (“Courthouse”) while court operations are affected by the COVID-19 pandemic. Unless and until this order is rescinded, anyone entering the Courthouse must comply with the requirements set forth herein.

I. Courthouse Access

Public access to the Courthouse—including access for arguing attorneys—is subject to compliance with the following.

- If you test positive for COVID-19 and are experiencing COVID-19 symptoms<sup>1</sup>, you may not enter the Courthouse until (1) at least five days have passed since your symptoms began; (2) you test negative for COVID-19 via two antigen tests taken at least 48 hours apart; (3) your

---

<sup>1</sup> People with these symptoms may have COVID-19: fever or chills; cough; shortness of breath or difficulty breathing; fatigue; muscle or body aches; headache; new loss of taste or smell; sore throat; congestion or runny nose; nausea or vomiting; and diarrhea.

- symptoms have resolved or are improving; and (4) you have been fever-free for at least 24 hours without the use of fever-reducing medications.
- If you test positive for COVID-19 but are asymptomatic, you may not enter the Courthouse until (1) at least five days have passed since the administration of the positive test; and (2) you test negative for COVID-19 via two antigen tests taken at least 48 hours apart.
  - If you are experiencing COVID-19 symptoms, you may not enter the Courthouse until (1) at least five days have passed since your symptoms began; (2) you test negative for COVID-19 via two antigen tests taken at least 48 hours apart; (3) your symptoms have resolved or are improving; and (4) you have been fever-free for at least 24 hours without the use of fever-reducing medications.
  - In addition to complying with the foregoing, anyone who has recently tested positive for COVID-19 or experienced COVID-19 symptoms must wear a mask while in the Courthouse for a total of ten days from symptom onset, or if asymptomatic, for ten days after administration of the positive test.
  - If you were recently exposed to COVID-19 but have not tested positive or developed symptoms, you must wear a mask while in the Courthouse for a total of ten days from your last exposure.

II. Alternatives to Entering Courthouse for Filing and Oral Arguments

Persons who wish to file documents or submit paper copies in person may use the Clerk's Office drop box located just inside the front door of the Courthouse. In addition, live-streamed audio of oral arguments will continue to be available to the public via the court's YouTube channel.

This order supersedes the pandemic-related general order entered April 21, 2022.

Entered for the Court,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'C. Wolpert', with a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.

Christopher M. Wolpert
Clerk of Court