

JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF THE TENTH CIRCUIT

IN RE: COMPLAINT UNDER THE JUDICIAL CONDUCT AND DISABILITY ACT

No. 10-14-90021

Before BRISCOE, Chief Judge.

ORDER

Complainant has filed a second complaint of judicial misconduct against a magistrate judge in this circuit. My consideration of this complaint is governed by 1) the misconduct rules issued by the Judicial Conference of the United States, entitled Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings (the “JCD Rules”); 2) the federal statute dealing with judicial misconduct, 28 U.S.C. § 351 et seq.; and 3) the “Breyer Report,” a study by the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act Study Committee, headed by Supreme Court Justice Stephen Breyer, entitled Implementation of the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980. The Breyer Report may be found at: <http://www.supremecourt.gov/public/info/breyercommitteereport.pdf>. To the extent that there are any relevant prior decisions of the full Judicial Council of this circuit which are consistent with those authorities, they may also govern my consideration of this complaint.

The JCD Rules and this circuit’s local misconduct rules are available to complainants on the Tenth Circuit’s web page at: <http://www.ca10.uscourts>.

gov/ce/misconduct. Paper copies are also furnished by the Circuit Executive's Office upon request. In accord with those rules, the names of the complainant and subject judge shall not be disclosed in this order. See JCD Rule 11(g)(2).

Complainant takes issue with various procedural rulings by the subject judge, and contends that the judge is using local rules and forms as a basis for rulings and making "false statements of material fact" in those rulings. These claims are not cognizable as misconduct because they are "directly related to the merits of a decision or procedural ruling." JCD Rule 11(c)(1)(B). As explained in the Breyer Report, this exclusion of matters related to the merits of underlying cases protects the independence of the judges deciding those cases. See Breyer Report, App. E., ¶ 2.

Complainant also asserts improper motive by the judge, contending that the judge is withholding documents from the docket, demanding forms that do not exist, and refusing to correct allegedly false entries on the docket. While allegations of improper motive may state a valid claim for misconduct even when related to a judge's ruling, see Commentary to JCD Rule 3, this conspiracy claim fails because it is completely unsupported.

Similarly, complainant contends, without explanation, that the judge is in violation of various national rules. Complainant asserts that evidence is not needed at this stage, and invites me to request proof of the allegations. However, the Rules are clear that complainants must support their misconduct allegations with “sufficient evidence to raise an inference that misconduct has occurred.” See JCD Rule 11(c)(1)(D). Complainant has not done so.

Accordingly, this complaint is dismissed pursuant to JCD Rule 11(c). The Circuit Executive is directed to transmit this order to complainant and copies to the subject judge and the Judicial Conference Committee on Judicial Conduct and Disability. See JCD Rule 11(g)(2). To seek review of this order, complainant must file a petition for review by the Judicial Council. The requirements for filing a petition for review are set out in JCD Rule 18(b). The petition must be filed with the Office of the Circuit Executive within 35 days of the date of the letter transmitting this order. Id.

So ordered this 9th day of June, 2014.
