

JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF THE TENTH CIRCUIT

IN RE: COMPLAINT UNDER THE JUDICIAL CONDUCT AND
DISABILITY ACT

No. 10-18-90003

Before TYMKOVICH, Chief Judge

ORDER

Complainant has filed a complaint of judicial misconduct against a district judge in this circuit. My consideration of this complaint is governed by the misconduct rules issued by the Judicial Conference of the United States, entitled Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings (the “JCD Rules”), the federal statutes addressing judicial conduct and disability, 28 U.S.C. § 351 et seq., and relevant prior decisions of the full Judicial Council of this circuit that are consistent with those authorities.

The JCD Rules and this circuit’s local misconduct rules are available to complainants on the Tenth Circuit’s web page at: <http://www.ca10.uscourts.gov/ce/misconduct>. Paper copies are also furnished by the Circuit Executive’s Office upon request. In accordance with those rules, the names of the complainant and subject judge shall not be disclosed in this order. See JCD Rule 11(g)(2).

Complainant, a non-party who appears to be interested in a series of cases over which the subject judge presided, alleges that the subject judge engaged in misconduct.

Complaint asserts the subject judge failed to disclose a friendship with an attorney in the matter. Complainant asserts that the subject judge was influenced by parties related to the matter and that his resulting decisions were influenced by improper motive. He asserts the subject judge conspired against the President of the United States and local officials. While allegations of improper motive and conspiracy can state valid claims for misconduct even when they relate to the judges' rulings, see Commentary to JCD Rule 3, these claims fail because they are completely unsupported. The JCD Rules require complainants to support their allegations with "sufficient evidence to raise an inference that misconduct has occurred." See JCD Rule 11(c)(1)(D).

Accordingly, this complaint is dismissed pursuant to JCD Rule 11(c). The Circuit Executive is directed to transmit this order to complainant and copies to the subject judge and the Judicial Conference Committee on Judicial Conduct and Disability. See JCD Rule 11(g)(2). To seek review of this order, complainant must file a petition for review by the Judicial Council. The requirements for filing a petition for review are set out in JCD Rule 18(b). The petition must be filed with the Office of the Circuit Executive within 42 days after the date of the chief judge's order. Id.

So ordered this 7th day of March, 2019.

Honorable Timothy M. Tymkovich
Chief Circuit Judge
