

JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF THE TENTH CIRCUIT

IN RE: COMPLAINT UNDER THE JUDICIAL CONDUCT AND DISABILITY ACT

Nos. 10-18-90018 & 10-18-90019

Before TYMKOVICH, Chief Judge

ORDER

Complainant has filed a complaint of judicial misconduct against two circuit judges in this circuit. My consideration of this complaint is governed by the misconduct rules issued by the Judicial Conference of the United States, entitled Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings (the “JCD Rules”), the federal statutes addressing judicial conduct and disability, 28 U.S.C. § 351 et seq., and relevant prior decisions of the full Judicial Council of this circuit that are consistent with those authorities.

The JCD Rules and this circuit’s local misconduct rules are available to complainants on the Tenth Circuit’s web page at: <http://www.ca10.uscourts.gov/ce/misconduct>. Paper copies are also furnished by the Circuit Executive’s Office upon request. In accordance with those rules, the names of the complainant and subject judges shall not be disclosed in this order. See JCD Rule 11(g)(2).

Complainant alleges the subject judges engaged in misconduct while assigned to his appeal. He asserts the subject judges exhibited personal bias and showed favoritism toward the opposing party when they granted the opposing party an extension of time. He asserts the extension of time was improper because it was contradictory to what was permitted by the local rules.

Complainant's allegation that the judges' extension of time was improper is not cognizable as misconduct because it is "directly related to the merits of a decision or procedural ruling." JCD Rule 11(c)(1)(B); see also Commentary to JCD Rule 3 (stating that "[a]ny allegation that calls into question the correctness of an official action of a judge—without more—is merits-related").

Complainant's allegations of bias and favoritism are also not cognizable. While these allegations can state a valid claim for misconduct even when they relate to a judge's ruling, see Commentary to JCD Rule 3, these claims fail because they are completely unsupported. The JCD Rules require complainants to support their allegations with "sufficient evidence to raise an inference that misconduct has occurred." See JCD Rule 11(c)(1)(D).

Accordingly, this complaint is dismissed pursuant to JCD Rule 11(c). The Circuit Executive is directed to transmit this order to complainant and copies to the subject judges and the Judicial Conference Committee on Judicial Conduct and Disability. See JCD Rule 11(g)(2). To seek review of this order, complainant must file a petition for review by the Judicial Council. The requirements for filing a petition for review are set out in JCD Rule 18(b). The petition must be filed with the Office of the Circuit Executive within 42 days after the date of the chief judge's order. Id.

So ordered this 15th day of April, 2019.
