JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF THE TENTH CIRCUIT

IN RE: COMPLAINT UNDER THE JUDICIAL CONDUCT AND DISABILITY ACT

Nos. 10-11-90033 through 10-11-90035

Before BRISCOE, Chief Judge.

ORDER

Complainant has filed a complaint of judicial misconduct against one district judge and two magistrate judges in this circuit. My consideration of this complaint is governed by 1) the misconduct rules issued by the Judicial Conference of the United States, entitled Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings (the "Misconduct Rules"); 2) the federal statute dealing with judicial misconduct, 28 U.S.C. § 351 et seq., and 3) the "Breyer Report," a study by the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act Study Committee, headed by Supreme Court Justice Stephen Breyer, entitled Implementation of the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980. The Breyer Report may be found at: http://www.supremecourt.gov/publicinfo/breyercommitteereport.pdf. To the extent that there are any relevant prior decisions of the full Judicial Council of this circuit which are consistent with those authorities, they may also govern my consideration of this complaint.

Complainant has been provided with a copy of the Misconduct Rules, and the Rules are also accessible on the Tenth Circuit's web page at: http://www.ca10.uscourts.gov/misconduct.php. In accord with those rules, the names of the complainant and subject judges shall not be disclosed in this order. See Misconduct Rule 11(g)(2).

Complainant contends that an underlying arrest warrant, issued in Alabama was invalid, and complains about the subject judges' handling and rulings in the related criminal case and subsequent civil case. These claims are not cognizable as misconduct because they are "directly related to the merits of a decision or procedural ruling." Misconduct Rule 11(c)(1)(B). As explained in the Breyer Report, this exclusion of matters related to the merits of underlying cases protects the independence of the judges deciding those cases. See Breyer Report, App. E., ¶ 2.

Complainant contends that the magistrate judges demonstrated bias and prejudice in their rulings and that the district judge is biased due to that judge's association with the magistrate judges. While allegations of bias can state a valid claim for misconduct even when related to a judge's ruling, see Commentary to Misconduct Rule 3, these allegations fail because they are completely unsupported. The Misconduct Rules require complainants to support their allegations with "sufficient evidence to raise an inference that misconduct has occurred." See Misconduct Rule 11(c)(1)(D). The judges' rulings and professional association do not provide evidence that supports a reasonable inference of bias.

Accordingly, this complaint is dismissed pursuant to Misconduct Rule 11(c). The Circuit Executive is directed to transmit this order to complainant and copies to the subject judges and the Judicial Conference Committee on Judicial Conduct and Disability. See Misconduct Rule 11(g)(2). To seek review of this order, complainant must file a petition for review by the Judicial Council. The requirements for filing a petition for review are set out in Misconduct Rule 18(b). The petition must be filed with the Office of the Circuit Executive within 35 days of the date of the letter transmitting this order. Id.

So ordered this 29th day of July, 2011.

Honorable Mary Beck Briscoe Chief Circuit Judge
