UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS

FOR THE TENTH CIRCUIT

October 27, 2026

Christopher M. Wolpert
Clerk of Court

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff - Appellee,

v.

SCOTT ERIN ALLISON,

Defendant - Appellant.

No. 26-6082
(D.C. No. 5:10-CR-00337-J-1)
(W.D. Okla.)

ORDER AND JUDGMENT*

Before MATHESON, BACHARACH, and PHILLIPS, Circuit Judges.

This matter is before the court on the parties' Joint Motion to Remand. The parties move to vacate the revocation sentence that was imposed on the count (Count 2) carrying a three-year term of supervised release that expired on August 6, 2013. The parties agree that the district court lacked authority to revoke supervised release on Count 2 once the term of supervised release had expired. The parties also agree

* This order and judgment is not binding precedent, except under the doctrines of law of the case, res judicata, and collateral estoppel. It may be cited, however, for its persuasive value consistent with Fed. R. App. P. 32.1 and 10th Cir. R. 32.1.

 Because this matter is being decided on a joint motion for remand, this panel has determined unanimously that oral argument would not materially assist in the determination of this appeal. See Fed. R. App. P. 34(f); 10th Cir. R. 34.1(G). The case is therefore submitted without oral argument.

that the revocation sentence that was imposed on the count carrying a life term of supervised release should remain in place.

Upon consideration, the Joint Motion to Remand is granted. This case is remanded to the district court with instructions to vacate the 24-month revocation sentence imposed on the count (Count 2) carrying the expired three-year term of supervised release, in accord with the Joint Motion to Remand.

The Clerk shall issue the mandate forthwith.
