Re: Florida v. Georgia, No. 142, Original
Supreme Court of the United States

Dear Mr. Kise:

This will acknowledge and thank you for your correspondence of January 22, 2015.

I am pleased to learn that "the parties have been working together cooperatively . . . to identify relevant documents and streamline the discovery process."

While none of us can anticipate the future, I am confident that the monthly progress reports will fully document the parties' efforts to comply with the Case Management Plan. Based upon my evaluation of those efforts, I will deal with any prospective problems at that time.

Sincerely,

Ralph I. Lancaster
