Subject: May 23, 2016 Letter re: Amicus Briefing

Ms. Goldstein:

The Special Master is in receipt of your letter dated May 23, 2016, inquiring "whether or when there may be an opportunity for amicus briefing" in Florida v. Georgia, No. 142 Orig. The Special Master appreciates your inquiry. A Case Management Order will be forthcoming this summer that will address final pre-trial and trial scheduling. You can expect that the Order will address whether amicus briefing will be permitted and, if so, the procedure for submitting such briefs. You may wish to contact counsel for the parties, as the Special Master will undoubtedly seek their opinions regarding the procedure, if any, for amicus briefs. Counsel have been copied on this email.

Thank you.
