

The Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals is seeking hotel rooms at a government rate over various dates in 2017 to house federal judges and their law clerks during terms of court in Denver, Colorado. We are considering splitting the block between law clerks and judges or housing all of them together, which is why this RFP shows three different options for bidding. Please advise of availability and rates for all three options if possible.

Our group will respond most favorably to having a government rate. We prefer properties that have a AAA 3 diamond rating or higher. Please also advise of any other services or amenities you may be able to offer the group. Proximity to the Byron White U.S. Courthouse will be considered in making a selection.

Please respond by close of business Friday, April 8. A decision will be made by mid-May.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions. Thank you for your assistance.
