FOR THE TENTH CIRCUIT
OFFICE OF THE CLERK

Byron White United States Courthouse
1823 Stout Street
Denver, Colorado 80257
(303) 844-3157

Christopher M. Wolpert
Clerk of Court

Jane K. Castro
Chief Deputy Clerk

Dear Counsel:

Admission to the bar of the Tenth Circuit is a prerequisite to practicing here. For general information regarding eligibility and procedures please see Fed. R. App. P. 46(a) and Tenth Circuit Rule 46.2. To apply, you must complete the attached form, as well as pay the admission fee, if required.

Specifically, please answer all the questions on the attached form. We do require that you identify, and provide an identification number for, if applicable, any court on which you rely for admission. We will confirm your admission with the appropriate authorities. In addition, please note the form constitutes a motion for admission. It must be signed by a member of this bar who is willing to confirm your good standing.

As an alternative to obtaining the signature of another member of the Tenth Circuit bar, you may provide us with a certificate of good standing, issued in the last 90 days, from the Supreme Court of the United States, the highest court of a state, or from a state licensing authority which confirms your good standing. The certificate should be submitted with your other admission materials. If you choose this alternative, the Clerk will act as the movant on your admission motion.

The fully completed form, with the certificate of good standing if provided, should be submitted through the court's electronic filing system; there is no need to submit original paper copies to the court. All signatures on the application should be by hand, however. An s/ may not be used. The fee for processing an application for admission is $225.00. Please note the admission fee is waived for any attorney representing the United States or a federal agency, or for any attorney appointed under the Criminal Justice Act Plan or Plan For Special Civil Appointments. Once your admission is processed you will receive a certificate from this court.

After you are admitted, you need not reapply for admission unless you have been suspended or disbarred by the court. See 10th Cir. R. 46.2(B).

If you have any questions regarding your admission or this process, please do not hesitate to email, call or write this office. Thank you for your interest in the Tenth Circuit.

Sincerely,

Christopher M. Wolpert
Clerk of the Court
